Q1) A – Read this text carefully. Reading Comprehension (10 M)

Smoking is considered to be dangerous to the health, it is especially difficult for children. Our tobacconist, Mr. Kamal, has always been careful about this. If his customers are very young, he always asks them whom the cigarettes are for. One day, a little girl walked boldly into his shop and demanded twenty cigarettes. She had the exact amount of money in her hand and seemed very sure of herself. Mr. Kamal was so surprised by her confident manner that he forgot to ask his usual question. Instead, he asked her what kind of cigarettes she wanted. The girl replied promptly and handed him the money While he was giving her the cigarettes, Mr, Kamal said laughingly that as she was so young, she should hide the packet in her pocket in case a policeman saw it. However, the little girl didn't seem to find this very funny. Without smiling, she took the packet and walked towards the door. Reading Comprehension (20 M)
Q1\ Unseen passage: (10 M)
A\ Read the following text carefully then answer five of the questions that follow (10 M.)

Living in a city has both advantages and disadvantages. First, it is easier to find work, and there is a choice of public transport, so you don't need to own a car. Also, there are a lot of interesting things to do and places to see. For example, you can eat in good restaurants, visit museums or go to theatres .What is more, when you want to relax, you can usually find a park where you can sit on a bench and read a book. City life is full of variety and you need never feel bored. .
However, living in a city is expensive, you can't afford many of the things you need to do. It is particularly difficult to find good, cheap accommodation. Furthermore, public transport is sometimes very crowded and dirty.Last of all, it is still possible to feel lonely in a city. In conclusion, I think city life can suit young people who like the excitement of the city and don't mind the noise or pollution, However, older people often prefer the place and fresh air of the countryside.

A\ Read the following text carefully.

Once upon a time, a great Caliph of Baghdad had a servant. He was very ugly to look at. Yet the Caliph loved him very much. One day his courtiers asked the Caliph. "Oh lord how is it that you love this servant more than others? He is very ugly. " The caliph answered. "once as I was going through the streets of Basra, a camel of my train slipped and fell in the street. From the camel's back there fell an ivory box containing my most precious pearls. The pearls rolled away on the muddy street. I said to my servants." There are all my precious pearis. Go and pick them up. Everybody will keep what he finds". All the servants went away to pick up the pearis except this ugly servant. I asked him. "My good fellow; why don't you go and join your friends? "the man replied, " you are the most precious pearl.
